GREAT POPULARITY!
The Sacred Melodeon,
BY A. S. HAYDEN.
HAS uniformly given, so far as the Publishers know, entire satisfaction to all churches and Musical Associations that have used it. Scores of practical teachers have praised the book and have it in their schools. But the fact that it has reached so many editions, has attained a sale of between One Hundred Thousand and Two Hundred Thousand Copies, and is now in larger demand than ever, has, I think, can, take the work out of the domain of criticism.
Two reasons will chiefly account for the great success of this work.
First.—The character of the Work. It represents a new and greatly improved system of notation. It is much less obscure and difficult in this respect than the old notation, and is so simplified that months are made equal to years in the common way of learning the practice of musical art.
Second.—The Quality and Style of Music. Many new pieces, destined to please as long as music lasts, may be found on its pages, and also many of the old and tried melodies, hallowed from associated recollections of sanctuary delights, and far more welcome to the heart of the worshipper than others frequently substituted for them.
The mechanical execution of the work is superior altogether to the majority of Eastern Music Books, and the price much lower.
The work may be had of Booksellers in all the principal cities and towns, or may be ordered direct from the Publishers.
Copies for examination, sent post-paid to Teachers, Leaders of Choirs, etc., for seventy-five cents remitted in postage stamps.
Also, Just Published:
ORIOLE: A Complete Hymn and Tune Book for Sabbath Schools. By Wm. B. Bradbury, the popular author of "The Sabbath School Choir." Sabbath School Melodies, and other Juvenile Music Books; also, author of "The Shaven" "Jubilee," &c., &c.

THE "CONFIDENCE GAME."—Mr. William Brand, member from Pendleton county in the last House of Representatives, was "done" out of $72 by a couple of Cincinnati sharpers, in Newport, a few days ago. One of them met him on the street, and accosting him by name, claimed to have become acquainted with him in this city during the session of the Legislature, and Mr. Brand, although not recognizing the man, thought that such might be the case. The two took a walk towards one of the rolling mills, and when arriving at the mill, another sharper came up, and told the first one that the iron he had bought was ready for delivery, and presented a bill for the same. The sharper offered a hundred dollar bill in payment, and the pretended clerk not being able to change it, Mr. Brand very kindly loaned the fellow the amount, $72, and the man, telling Mr. B. to wait a moment, and he would return with him to the hotel, he and the bogus clerk went into the mill and disappeared. Mr. B. after waiting a sufficient time, made inquiries in regard to his new acquaintance, and found that he and his clerk were both gone. He called in the aid of an officer, who succeeded in arresting one of the men, but the other, the one having the money, made his escape.

THE CALIFORNIA ELECTION.—Complete returns of the late election in California have been received. From all but Mendocino county the returns are official. The following are the aggregate results as to the principal offices: For Governor, Latham, Administration Democrat, 60,934; Curry, anti Leconte Democrat, 31,232; Stanford, Republican, 10,128. For Congressmen, Burch, Adm., 57,926; Scott, Adm., 56,582; McKibben, A. L. D. and Rep., 43,414; Baker, do., 41,386. For State Printer, Dotts, Adm., 56,993; O'Meara, Opp., 44,002. For a Convention, 42,822; against do., 9,906.

ARNOLD ACQUITTED.—In the Federal Court yesterday, the jury in the case of Ben. Arnold, former postmaster at Elkhorn, in this county, indicted for robbing the mail, after having the case under consideration for several days, brought in a verdict of acquittal. This, we believe, is the fourth trial he has had, the jury heretofore not being able to agree.

REMOVAL OF HON. J. J. FARRAN.—The Cincinnati Enquirer announces the removal of Hon. J. J. Farran from the office of postmaster of Cincinnati and the appointment of Dr. Vattier. Mr. F. was appointed by the present Administration and succeeded Dr. V.

It is not unlikely that the Democrats have carried Iowa after all. Dodge gains, in sixty counties, 1,794 votes. He has yet forty counties in which to gain 847. The Legislature is probably Democratic.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF TENNESSEE.—The following is the official vote of Tennessee, as declared by the Legislature on Saturday: For Isham G. Harris, 76,073; for John Netherland, 68,042; majority for Harris, 8,031.

The Memphis papers contain a notice of the death of Lieutenant Andrew J. Donelson, son of Maj. Andrew J. Donelson, now of Memphis, but lately residing near Nashville.

From the report of District Attorney Ould it appears that not a single slave volunteered in the recent insurrection.

FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING.—The season has arrived when gentlemen begin to look around for a supply of winter clothing, and we take occasion to call attention to the establishment of Messrs. Schloss & Getz, corner of Main and St. Clair streets. They have on hand a choice selection of gentlemen's clothing of all kinds—dress coats and pants, cassimere suits, vests, cravats, shirts, underwear, &c., all of the latest and most fashionable styles, made and selected with special reference to the wants of this community. They have been in business here for a long time, and are well posted as to the tastes of our people. They have a manufactory of their own in Cincinnati, and all their clothing is made under the immediate superintendence of one of the partners. Persons wishing to fit themselves out for the winter in good style, and for a little money, are recommended to give them a call.

AN ACROSTICAL POEM.

BY ERENEZER BUZZ, L. L. D., POET LAUREATE TO THE OPPOSITION FAIR-TEE.

Founded February XXII, MDCCCLIX.

Awake! oh muse! thy purest numbers bring,
Sate smooth bribe for the chief I sing!
Deeply inspire my dull, my leagard mind;
Relume my soul, my faculties unbind;
Evoke a volume of undying praise!
With softly gliding euphony of phrase!
Joyous we laud Magoffin's patriot zeal,
And crown him chieftain of the common weal.
Crown Boyd who, prostrate by disease and pain,
Kept tedious vigil 'er his former slain:
Second in rank, yet equal in degree,
O'er his loved home, the peerless and the free.
Next comes our mountain hero's calm, serene,
Justice and virtue stamped upon his mien—
Austly towering 'er his elite foes—
Moring and night chief of all their woes—
Erasing slanders that had foully been
Sown broadcast by the wily Jacobin;
And hurling back with burning eloquence
Those lying sophistries, their sole defense.
To Green we give the old historic Page,
Olympic crown, and O. K. N'ie rage!
Ruthless Democrats! at one "fell swoop,"
Nabbed all the chickens and cleaned out the coop!
Enoble our Garrard rises in his might—
Yerker of Jones—behold! he tans their White!
Good Frazer, too, a fierce cooer quite done,
Eats K. N. soup, and wears his laurels won.
Next faithful Richardson attracts our sight—
Eclipsing Evans, chief of the elite.
Remorseless giant is the valiant Bates—
An Argus, guarding freedom's sacred gates,
Luring the foe to sad and certain fates.

MERCHANT TAILORING.—M. B. SWAIN'S ESTABLISHMENT.—This establishment, in Masonic Temple Building, near corner Fourth and Jefferson streets, Louisville, is favorably known for the completeness of its stock and excellence of its goods, and the liberality and upright dealings of its enterprising proprietor. His assortment of cloths, cassimere, and vestings, comprises every variety, including the most elegant styles which have been imported into the city. Customers may depend that the garments turned out by Swain fit superbly, and are inferior to none East or West. Also, a stock of furnishing goods, hosiery, cravats, &c.

A VISIT TO MRS. POLK.—A correspondent of the Concord (N. H.) Patriot, writing from Nashville, October 8, thus handsomely alludes to Mrs. President Polk:

With Major Eastman, of the Nashville Union & American, I called yesterday upon Mrs. Polk, who occupies the splendid mansion in Nashville, built by Hon. Felix Grundy, and purchased by President Polk of Judge Grundy's heirs, to which he retired on leaving the White House, and where, worn out by the cares and anxieties of office, he died some four months after the expiration of his official term. The mansion, surrounded as it is by beautiful grounds, is one of the pleasantest residences in the city, and no one who has had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Polk needs the assurance that it is presided over with an affability and dignity that makes it a center of attraction.

Mrs. Polk is probably the most generally known of any woman in America, and is universally conceded to be the most amiable, accomplished, and intelligent woman of her time. She possesses that graceful ease of manner, tact, and readiness in conversation which make every one feel at home in her society, and render her conversation so charming. She contested the palm of popularity evenly with Mrs. Madison, and with that single exception was much the most popular lady that ever lived in the White House; while here in Nashville she is regarded with a love and admiration that approach to reverence. Regularly on the 1st of January the Legislature of Tennessee adjourns by formal vote to permit members to pay their respects to Mrs. Polk—an honor never accorded to any other person, not even to General Jackson himself; and the Speakers of both Houses at their head, proceed in a body to her house. Their action affords a fair instance of the respect and esteem in which she is held.

AMERICAN HORSES ABROAD.—Mr. R. Ten Brock's new horses, Sherritt and Pretty-by-Night, have reached Liverpool in safety. The former has been re-named Satellite and the latter Maggoire. The objection to Mr. Ten Brock's horse Umpire, the winner of the Zetland Biennial at Stockton, on the ground that he was not entitled to be the most amiable, accomplished, and intelligent woman of her time. She possesses that graceful ease of manner, tact, and readiness in conversation which make every one feel at home in her society, and render her conversation so charming. She contested the palm of popularity evenly with Mrs. Madison, and with that single exception was much the most popular lady that ever lived in the White House; while here in Nashville she is regarded with a love and admiration that approach to reverence. Their action affords a fair instance of the respect and esteem in which she is held.

Democratic Meeting in Caldwell.
At a meeting of the Democracy of Caldwell county, at the court-house in Princeton, on the 17th of October, 1859, on motion of James P. McGowan, Esq., it was resolved that E. S. Mitchell, Esq., be chosen Chairman of the meeting, and S. F. Farrow, Secretary.

The Chairman explained the object of the meeting to be the appointment of delegates to represent the county in the State Convention to be held in the city of Frankfort on the 8th of January next.

B. D. Terry, Esq., moved that the Chairman of the meeting appoint a committee of five to report such resolutions as might be deemed expedient for the action of the meeting, which motion was unanimously carried.

The Chairman appointed B. D. Terry, Esq., James P. McGowan, Esq., James M. Beance, Elijah Stevenson, Jr., and S. F. Farrow, to compose the committee on resolutions, who, after reading for a short time, returned, and through the Chairman, Mr. Terry, reported the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we still cling to the old faith of the Democracy, believing in "equal rights to all, exclusive privileges to none;" and though we will ask for nothing but what is right, we will submit to nothing that is wrong.

Resolved, That we hold that under the Federal Constitution the Territories are the common property of the Union, belonging to the South equally with the North; and that Southern men have the same right to carry their slaves there that Northern men have to take any description or character of their property; and that when a Territorial Legislature fails to pass laws necessary and adequate to the indiscriminate protection of all property, it is then the duty of Congress to intervene for its protection.

Resolved, That our representation be instructed to vote for no man for U. S. Senator holding different views from the foregoing.

Resolved, That if the Charleston Convention should nominate a Democrat from Kentucky, we favor the nomination of James Guthrie; but should the candidate not be given to Kentucky, we then favor the nomination of R. M. T. Hunter of Virginia.

Resolved, That the following Democrats, together with all others from this county who may attend the Convention which is to convene at Frankfort on the 8th of January next, viz: E. S. Mitchell, W. B. Acre, J. G. Morse, T. J. Peck, E. B. Martin, T. B. Waddington, Gen. Stevenson, T. S. Johnson, E. R. Farrow, Wm. Carter, F. W. Dods, J. H. McChesney, and T. W. Pickering, be, and they are hereby appointed delegates to said Convention, to aid in carrying out these resolutions.

On motion of T. J. Peck, it was resolved that the committee reporting the foregoing resolutions be added to the delegates therein named, and that the resolutions be unanimously adopted, which was done.

E. S. MITCHESON, Chairman.
S. F. FARROW, Secretary.

Arrival of the Ocean Queen.

New York, Oct. 24.—The steamer Ocean Queen, from Havre and Southampton, has arrived. She brings dates from Liverpool to the 13th inst., one day later than received by the Anglo-Saxon. The ship Quebec of New Brunswick was wrecked off the Edgemoor light-house on the 11th inst.

Robt. Stephenson, the eminent engineer, is dead. Austria has refused to diminish the amount of the debt of Lombardy due to Sardinia. France and Piedmont propose to submit the point of arbitration.

Italy.—Numerous arrests had been made at Ancona, and the principal authorities and accomplices of the number of Ancona, an officer of the ex-buque, were in the hands of justice. The city ad became tranquil and the disarming of the opulace had been ordered. It was surrounded by Modenese and Tuscan troops.

General Garibaldi had issued a proclamation to the army of Italy. He thus addresses them: "Soldiers! the hour of our triumph is approaching; the enemy is threatening, and will, perhaps, attack us before many days. Companions of Lombardy! I know I am not speaking to eaf men, and that it is enough to tell them that e are going to fight the enemy of Italy. I shall ask to see you then form in your ranks!" Dated Bologna, October 5th.

The Pope is to have an interview with the King of Naples at Castel Gaudio, where he will prolong his stay on account of the agitation eigning at Rome. After his departure from rome a demonstration took place in honor of the ardiman ambassador. A crowd of visitors, estimated at 10,000, left their cards at the ambassador's residence. The French gen d'armes reserved order, but the effect of the demonstration was profound.

The Ambassador was to leave on the 10th, then another silent demonstration was expected. The Zurich Conference.—A Zurich dispatch f the 11th says: The conference does not draw a close. Austria still refuses to diminish the amount of the debt of Lombardy to be borne by Sardinia. The demands of Austria are not only astisted by Sardinia, but do not secure the support of France, who has proposed to submit the isputed point to the arbitration of another power. No answer had yet been secured to this proposition. The French government wants the arsons of the Monte Napoleon and all the indemnity for the cost of the late war to be included in the settlement of the debt, which will have to e paid by Austria and Piedmont.

France.—The Emperor was expected at Paris n Wednesday night. An envoy of the Sultan arrived at Alexandria, bearing an order to he Viceroy of Egypt, to oppose the continuation f the work on the Suez canal. The foreign consuls had immediately assembled to take action on the matter.

Spain.—Letters from Madrid state that the Emperor of Morocco had ratified the arrangements concerning the frontier line of Nutila, and expressed his readiness to give Spain all the satisfaction she demands.

Turkey.—Additional discoveries have been made at Constantinople concerning the recent conspiracy for the assassination of the Sultan. It is asserted that incendiary machines have been discovered which were destined to burn the European part of the town. The Grand Vizier has tendered his resignation, but it was refused. It was evident, however, that the dissolution of the Ministry was inevitable. A new loan had been contracted under heavy conditions.

Texas.—On the occasion of the obsequies of the late Rev. John S. Rogers, at Moore, several Jews and wounded a few Christians. They also wounded a Minister of the new Boy, who had come to the rescue, with his escort, striking and killing many on the spot, and causing thirty of the Mussulmen to be arrested. Tranquility finally prevailed.

The Administration of Justice in Kentucky.

A great deal has been said in regard to the influence of wealth and position upon the administration of justice by the courts of this country, we take pleasure in referring to two cases recently decided by the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, to show the effect of such influences.

During the last summer a man by the name of Champ, reported to be worth some $75,000, and having many influential friends and relatives, was convicted in the Fayette Circuit Court of having forcibly administered chloroform to his widow sister-in-law, and while she was insensible from its effects, committing the horrid crime of rape upon her, and he was sentenced to the penitentiary for the term of fifteen years.

About the same time a friendless negro slave girl named Jane was convicted in the Owen Circuit Court of poisoning to death her mistress, and sentenced to be hung.

The former was defended by the ablest counsel that money or influence could procure, and the latter by attorneys which the merciful provisions of the law allowed the Courts to assign her, without compensation, and popular prejudice was decidedly against her.

Both cases were appealed upon abstract questions of law, which, if outside influence could have been exerted, would have resulted in a verdict of acquittal for both. The Court of last resort to have yielded to it without apparent effort, but stern and inflexible in deciding as the law alone required, and having both cases before them at the same time, the Judges of the Court of Appeals have recently in the case of the wealthy and influential Champ affirmed the judgment, and consigned him to the penitentiary, at hard labor, for the long term of fifteen years, while in the case of Jane, the friendless slave, the judgment has been reversed, and she has another chance for her life.

Perhaps these facts should be commended to the ears of the North who say there is no justice for slaves in the Courts of the South.

CRIME NORTH AND SOUTH.

The New York Courier, a Republican journal, has an able article upon this subject. It says: "the contrast between the frequency of crime in the Northern and Southern States is remarkable. Of course it is expected that the frequency of crime committed in the North will be greater than at the South; but if the proportion of the number of inhabitants is regarded, it will be found that in the South crime is not so frequent as at the North. True it is that, owing to certain peculiar notions of honor, personal encounters, in which life is often taken, are far more frequent at the South than they are at the North; but murders, robberies and other crimes are by no means so frequent there. This is mainly to be accounted for by the fact that punishment is more certain than it is here. The ten thousand pleas and excuses which have been raised in favor of the criminal have as yet found no favor there. There is a conservatism in the South in the respect which cannot but excite our admiration. The progressive ideas which have done so much injury here, there never find root. Socialism with its attendant destructive doctrines is never heard of there. No one would ever dream of attempting to establish there a 'Free Love institution.' There divorces are not granted on frivolous pretexts, and in fact a divorce case is rarely found in any of the Courts. Whether this conservatism be attributable to the influence of the 'peculiar institution,' is not for us to say, but it is certainly desirable that a similar conservatism should be found at the North."

A SAD CASE.—A DANCER ELOPED.—A Mr. Goddard, of St. Louis, was in the city on Saturday searching for a lost daughter. Mr. Goddard formerly practiced law in St. Louis, but has retired from business. Some time since a young man who represented himself as the agent of a wealthy New York house, became acquainted with Mr. Goddard's daughter, a young lady of beauty and intelligence. The acquaintance ripened into such warm friendship that Mr. Goddard felt bound to make inquiries as to the young man's real position. He ascertained that he was a gambler, and not the agent he pretended to be. Mr. Goddard thereupon forbade him to visit the house.

Last Wednesday night Miss Goddard eloped with this young man, as was afterwards ascertained, and came to this city. Mr. Goddard could find no traces of the fugitives till Friday, when he learned their route and tracked them to this city. Here he ascertained that they had gone East but a short time previous to his arrival.—Cin. Gaz.

Proclamation by the Governor.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY,
Executive Department.

Another abundant harvest has been gathered; another year of multiplied blessings is fast drawing to a close. The labors of the farmer, the mechanic, the manufacturer, and the merchant, the professional man and the man of science, have been abundantly rewarded; commerce has revived, trade has improved, and thrift is apparent everywhere throughout the land. Neither war nor pestilence nor famine has afflicted us. Peace, plenty, and health have blessed a free, prosperous, and happy people. Providence has showered His blessings upon us as individuals, as a State, as a nation. We should return to Him the homage of grateful hearts. In the eager pursuit of pleasure, of fortune, or of fame—in the excitement of our daily occupations—in the multifarious pursuits of life, we are too apt to forget Him from whom these bounties come. Acknowledging no sovereign but Him, let us recognize the venerable custom of the "Jewish Feast of Weeks" appointed by Jehovah for his chosen people. For the establishment of, and preservation then, of our free institutions—for the preservation of our lives and health—for our tranquility, prosperity, and happiness—for our general thrift and the untold blessings we enjoy as a State and a people—

I, BERNARD MAGOFFIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby appoint and set apart THURSDAY, the 24th day of November next, as a day of THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE TO ALMIGHTY GOD, and recommend its appropriate observance by all the citizens of the Commonwealth.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1859, and in the sixty-eighth year of the Commonwealth.

By the Governor: B. MAGOFFIN.

THO. B. MONROE, JR., Secretary of State.

By Jas. W. TATE, Ass't Secretary.

The Fillbusters.

Some of the leaders of the fillbusters are on trial in New Orleans. The Delta describes them as follows:

Captain Payson is a small, handsome, wiry, sailor looking young man, a native of this city, of creole blood. He is sharp, quick, and sagacious gentleman, and is the same officer who performed the gallant exploit on Lake Nicaragua of blowing up a large cannon and a force of several hundred sailors and soldiers, with a little schooner of less than a hundred tons.

Capt. Harry Maury, of Mobile, a fine looking young man, of the distinguished Virginia family of Maury, is the dashing officer who, in command of the vessel which carried Walker out of his last expedition, escaped from the United States revenue cutter and safely landed Walker's party.

Colonel Frank Anderson is a tall military looking young man, of very impressive bearing, the same who, with a small party in advance of Walker's main force, took the Fort Castillo, in the last expedition, which he was afterwards compelled to evacuate, on account of the capture of Walker's party by the United States naval force under Commodore Paulding. Colonel Anderson came into court with a smiling face, bearing a huge bouquet presented to him by some lady friends on his way to the court, which he quietly deposited in a tumbler on the table.

Capt. Scott is another of Walker's veterans—a sad, grave looking young man, whose acts have proved what his countenance indicates—the possession of decided military talent.

These gentlemen were accompanied by their friends, among whom we observed, quite prominent in the manifestation of their sympathies for the accused, Col. Ben. Harrison, the independent candidate for the Sheriffalty, and Recorder Lucien Adams, of the Fourth district. Gen. Walker was not present at the examination.

A Fugitive Slave Taken From the U. S. Deputy Marshal at Ottawa.

The following special dispatch came to us by telegraph at nine o'clock last night:

OTTAWA, ILL., Thursday, Oct. 29.
A fugitive slave belonging to Mr. Richard Phillips, of Missouri, was today, about eleven o'clock A. M., rescued by prominent Republicans of this city from the United States Deputy Marshal for the Southern District of Illinois, in the presence of Hon. J. D. Catton, Chief Justice, at his chambers. The slave was brought from Union County, before the Judge, on a writ of habeas corpus. J. N. Albright, Deputy Marshal, claimed to hold him under a writ issued by the United States Commissioner of the Southern District of Illinois, under the Fugitive-slave Law.

The prisoner was remanded, and just as the judge had finished making out the order, and before he had left the room, a fanatical crowd of Republicans rushed upon the Marshal, forcibly took the fugitive, and hurried him into a carriage prepared for the occasion. The team went out of town on a run, with a crowd of Republicans following, hooting and yelling. The Chief Justice, after giving his decision, made some remarks to the crowd, stating that, although their sympathies might be aroused in behalf of the colored man, he was bound to uphold the law, his friends and neighbors would not attempt to violate any law, that he would regret to be made the unwilling instrument of bringing a person on a writ of habeas corpus into a place where the law could not be executed. His personal request and the majesty of the law, were, nevertheless, alike disregarded.

AMERICAN HORSES IN ENGLAND.—The news which comes to us by the late arrivals in relation to the American horses in England is somewhat checkered, and is about balanced with degrees of good and ill. Starke, the American winner of the Goodwood stakes, the Benetick Testimonial, and Warwick Cup, an easy victory over Lifeboat even weights, has just run for a Royal Plate at Newmarket, in a race of two miles and a half, and to everybody's astonishment has been beaten. His failure, however, is attributed by our keensighted correspondent, "Censor," to want of condition, a cause sufficient to the mind of every turfman, and adequate to protect him from disparagement as to the merits that have been claimed for him. He, however, ran second to the winner, leaving the rest of the field a long way behind, and thus proving that the horse which did best him was a good one and also in good trim.

But the great item of our turf intelligence is the fact that the American colt Umpire, who is entered among two hundred and twenty British year olds to run for the next Spring Derby, stands at the head of the brilliant list, not only as first favorite, but as low down as only seven to one against him in the odds! This is at the rate of over thirty to one in his favor against each competitor, and we can estimate the compliment it involves, by recalling to mind the fact that Blink Bonny, the celebrated mare of 1857, who was the phenomenon of her year, never got below eleven to one.—Wilkes' Spirit.

A good story is told of Dr. McKenzie. Some time ago the Dr. accompanied some fair Philadelphians to the Navy Yard in Brooklyn. The day was fine but gusty; he was eloquently describing, on the ferry-boat, the beauty of the surrounding scenery, when a puff of wind gently lifted his hat off his head, and carried it like a jockey's to leave him at it.

"Good heavens!" cried the Doctor, "there's some poor fellow's hat in the air. Well, that's a joke! I leave him at it!"

The roar of laughter which greeted him all around, and the direction all eyes took to his head, induced him to put his hand there.

"By the powers!" quoth he, "it's my hat!" But his native wit returning, as he saw it plump itself into the waters of the East river, "That's true to nature—a beaver always takes to water!" N. Y. Evening Post.
